Fat shaming brought to light in the video letter Dear Fat People

by Williative Snorton

YouTube comedian, Nicole Arbour, has gotten a great deal of hate for her video Dear Fat People. Her video was uploaded on YouTube and shared on Facebook on Friday, September 4th. It is a 6 minute long video of Nicole ranting that obese people need to be fat-shamed.

Arbour claims that her YouTube channel was taken down due to her Dear Fat People video. Some critics said Arbour took her own video down, but she always said it was n’t true. A YouTube spokesperson said the company mistakenly suspended the channel on Sunday afternoon and moved “quickly” to reinstate it. By Monday morning, the channel was back up. “Fat shaming is not a thing. Fat people made that up,” she says. “That’s the race card with no race. Yeah, but I couldn’t fit into a store. That’s discrimination.”

Arbour’s video was uploaded on Sunday and moved “quickly” to reinstate it. By Monday morning, the channel was back up. “Fat shaming is not a thing. Fat people made that up,” she says. “That’s the race card with no race. Yeah, but I couldn’t fit into a store. That’s discrimination.”

According to Arbour, fat shaming is “the least of our problems.”

Hip Hop Awards Recap

by Eno Abrefa

If you missed the BET Hip Hop Awards last Tuesday, Oct. 13, here is the list of the winners:

Best Hip Hop Video: Kendrick Lamar “Alright”
Best Collaboration, Duo, or Group: Big Sean feat. Drake and Kanye West “Blessing”
Best Live Performer: J.Cole
Lyrist of the Year: Kendrick Lamar
Video Director of the Year: Alan Ferguson
DJ of the Year: DJ Mustard
Producer of the Year: DJ Mustard
MVP of the Year: Drake
Track of the Year: “Trap Queen” (Fetty Wap)
Album of the Year: Drake, 2014 Forest Hill Drive Who Blew Up Award? Fetty Wap
House of the Year: DJ Mustard
Best Hip Hop Style: DeJ Loaf
Best Club Banger: Big Sean feat. E-40 “I Do What I Want”
Best Mix Tape: Future-Me Nights
Best Featured Verse: Drake – “My Way” (Remix) (Fetty Wap feat. Drake)

10—the Buzz

School pictures are THIS THURSDAY!!!
Be sure to bring your form on picture day.
Parents received an email about ordering online as well!

Death penalty still controversial

by Brooklyn West

The Death Penalty is defined as the punishment of execution, administered to someone legally convicted of a capital crime. The Death Penalty is legal in 32 states in the United States. Today the amount executed have lessened but have not stopped. People say that the death penalty is wrong because the 8th Amendment states, “Excessive bail should not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.”

“The matter on what they did because if a person had killed someone, they should be sentenced,” said Madison Wright, ECHS Grade 9.

Others think that it is doing good—that the bad should be punished for what they did and not sit in jail. They believe that it is the best way to handle criminals.

“Azhane’ Booker, ECHS Grade 9, stated, “It’s bad because killing someone is wrong, but if the criminal killed someone it is a different issue.”

The abolishing of the death penalty is coming with out the help of riots. All states are in favor of lethal injections as the most humane method, but the supply of drugs that can do the job have been drying up due to these factors.

Arguing for capital punishment, the Clark County, Indiana Prosecuting Attorney writes that “there are some defendants who have earned the ultimate punishment our society has to offer by committing murder with aggravating circumstances present. I believe life is sacred. It cheapens the life of an innocent murder victim to say that society has no right to keep the murderer from ever killing again. In my view, society has not only the right, but the duty to act in self-defense to protect the innocent.”

The vast majority of democratic countries in Europe and Latin America have abolished capital punishment over the last fifty years, but United States, most democracies in Asia, and almost all totalitarian governments retain it.

The abolishing of the death penalty is coming with out the help of riots. All states are in favor of lethal injections as the most humane method, but the supply of drugs that can do the job have been drying up due to these factors.
Opinion/Editorial
This opinions expressed here are those of the contributing writers and not necessarily those of The Buzz or the Early College High School.

by Gerica Argunosa
All the Presidential candidates have their faults and success when talking about their possible seat in the Presidency, so what are Donald Trump’s?

Time and time again, Donald Trump has tried to run for President: 2000, 2004, 2008, and 2012. Now he’s trying to run for president for the 2016 election. We’ve heard of his many speeches about his reputation as a businessman, illegal immigrants, and his “opinions” about the other candidates. So, how is it going with his election?

Actually, it’s going pretty well. You might be confused by this, but since Trump was very expressive during his speeches, he became popular nationwide. Each candidate has their own pros and cons, and so does Donald Trump.

Pros:
If Donald Trump gets elected, new jobs will be spawned in the United States like never before. You see, before Donald Trump began to run for the presidency, he worked as a real estate developer. He is an exceedingly amazing negotiator to business leaders as a real estate developer. He is an exceedingly amazing negotiator to business leaders. He is knowledgeable about the business world and as a Presidential candidate. His leadership style forces people to do what he wants instead of taking the time to see what they need. He seems to be a very ambitious leader who leads others into his own plans.

Cons:
He gets way too carried away when it comes to some serious subjects, and that is not helping him. He is said to be very racist, based on his statements like Blacks and Latinos are the main cause of crime happening in the U.S. and that Hispanics are dumping all their bad people into the U.S. Khamari Shields, ECHS Grade 10, said, “I believe the argument he’s making is too lop sighted.”

Donald Trump has been repeatedly accused of being an untrustworthy person both in the business world and as a Presidential candidate. His leadership style forces people to do what he wants instead of taking the time to see what they need. He seems to be a very ambitious leader who leads others into his own plans.

With that, he may not know how to work with a team. He is more about self-promoting himself to get more financial power. So, if he becomes President, it may also be for self-promotion. Donald Trump is a very successful businessman now, but he went through bankruptcy four times! If we elected him, would the country have to go through the Great Depression again? So, what do you think? Do you think it’s a good idea to vote for Donald Trump, or would you rather pick another candidate?

If you have an issue for a future issue, email us at echsbuzz@gmail.com
Fashion trends for Fall can by bought locally

by Shayla Mc Cleary

Stylish, funky, and creative fashion trends are so cool to experiment with! Whether it’s in a jacket over a cardigan or some cute boots for the winter, you can always find something that is affordable and nice-looking. Shopping at the right store is key to the very best clothing for girls and boys. Shopping at stores that have low prices is always a win!

Shaniyah Taylor, ECHS Grade 9, says, “H&M is one of the stores I shop at because they have low prices compared to Forever 21 where they try to sell $20.00 shirts.” Kysair Murphy, ECHS Grade 9, added, “I shop at the Polo outlet, the Nike outlet, and Hollister.”

The latest fashion trends for girls these days are casual and comfortable items. These items include graphic tees, a fitted hoodie, comfortable pants, sweats, or leggings, and sneakers. When it comes to dressing appropriately and making it cute, you can always find a good, funny, and cool outfit to wear that all the girls will love!

For the fellas, Ethan Salisbury, ECHS Grade 9, says that he likes to shop at Hollister or American Eagle. He likes graphic tees and jeans. He likes to be comfortable because he wants to feel like he’s lounging all day. Jeans and sweaters are the latest trends. He shops in store or online. He says, “It is easier and you can try on things. Graphic Tees are shops in store or online. He says, “It is easier and you can try on things. Graphic Tees are Smart phones have a type of AI. Siri and Cortana, for example, are types of artificial intelligence. They can do things like call people for you, text people for you, check the weather and traffic, and even schedule appointments. You can even just ask it a random questions that you want to know.

Many people use smart phones to help their daily lives. Some people can’t live without them. Kelsey Zeiter, ECHS Grade 9, says, “On an average day, I use my phone about 45% of the day.” Arhane Booker, ECHS Grade 9, says, “I use my phone about 80% of a day.”

Every year the smart phone is improving, and maybe sooner or later they will pass us in the race. But when?

Artificial Intelligence is becoming more and more commonplace

by Zack Ianni

For years humans have adapted over time and expand their knowledge—the race to know more, the race to understand the world around them. But as humans get lazier and lazier by the year, one has to wonder how long it would be until the artificial intelligence (AI) passes us?

Hollywood loves the topic of AI, and as a result it has been the topic of several blockbuster movies like Ex Machina, Artificial Intelligence, Her, The Day the Earth Stood Still, and many others. AI was once far from a reality, but now it’s knocking right at our door.

How to take great selfies

1. Check your surroundings
   Are you near an odd! Oncoming traffic or the middle of a swift current? Rock P000k both ways before taking a selfie.

2. Be responsible
   Are you attempting to take a selfie while responsible for someone else?

3. Make sure the animals are trained
   Taking a selfie with a family pet, or even at the zoo, can be adorable, but remember to keep your distance from wild animals.

4. Take your photo while practicing safe selfies
   You may be incredibly safe, but others aren’t practicing safe habits as well. It could affect you. Make sure everyone in the shot is alert and aware.

5. Secure your phone
   There’s no use in going through all this trouble if you’re just going to take a phone. And remember, in case of an emergency, your selfie stick may be able to save your life.

6—The Buzz

Empire leads the way on Wednesdays

by Zoe Jones

Empire is one of the most watched TV shows of 2015. Episodes air Wednesdays on Fox at 9:00p.m. Empire has a lot of new things this season that you might not expect. In the previous season, there were a lot of jaw dropping events that took place. For example, the main character, Lucious, was misdiagnosed with a disease he thought was fatal, we found out his son, Jamal, is a father, supposedly, and his other son, Andre, almost commits suicide!!! It was very interesting when the three brothers, Jamal, Hakeem and Andre all fought each other in the elevator about who would take over the musical “empire” their father and mother built. That was when Jamal and Hakeem found out that Andre has bipolar disorder.

Nia Allen, ECHS Grade 9, said “I like Empire because I like all the production of music.” She also said she likes all the betrayal and drama. Empire is facing some criticisms because of one of its storylines—homosexuality and homophobia. Some people feel that certain groups aren’t really ready to accept viewing this on prime time television. Others show on other networks are facing the same scrutiny. Then there are those who say Empire is suffering from the “Sophomore jinx,” and that this sea-

90s shows makes a repeat performance on new Nickelodeon network Splat!

by Taylor Gillis-Hammond

“Welcome to Good Burger, Home of the Good Burger, Can I take your order?” Sound familiar? This famous saying of Kel Mitchell’s character on Good Burger, along some many other memorable shows can been seen again on the new network, The Splat! Nickelodeon has made the new channel, The Splat, to bring back more classic shows. The Splat comes on from 10 pm to 3 am on Teen Nick. “My favorite part of Good Burger is Ed’s catch phrase that he always said” says Eno Abrefa, ECHS Grade 9. But what about a reunion with fellow co-star Kenan Thompson?

This reunion happened on The Tonight Show September 23 2015. In the reunion sketch Ed (Mitchell) takes the orders of various customers but keeps angering them to the point they don’t want their orders anymore. Customer, Lester Oaks (Thompson) comes in for a meal and asked for a Good Shake, but the shake he gets is just not good enough. However to end the sketch on a good note, both Mitchell and Thompson join each other to sing another well-known song, “He’s a dude she’s a dude we’re all just dudes.”

7—The Buzz

—The Splat

shows to air on The Splat:

— Real Monsters
— All That
— Angry Beavers
— Are You Afraid Of The Dark?
— As Told By Ginger
— CatDog
— Clarissa Explains It All
— Doug
— GUTS
— Hey Arnold
— Hey Dude
— Kenan And Kel
— Legends Of The Hidden Temple
— Ren And Stimpy
— Rocket Power
— Rocko’s Modern Life
— Rugrats
— Salute Your Shorts
— The Adventures Of Pete & Pete
— The Wild Thornberrys
— You Can’t Do That On Television

SHOWS TO AIR ON THE SPLAT:

Welcome to Good Burger, Home of the Good Burger, Can I take your order? Sound familiar? This famous saying of Kel Mitchell’s character on Good Burger, along some many other memorable shows can been seen again on the new network, The Splat! Nickelodeon has made the new channel, The Splat, to bring back more classic shows. The Splat comes on from 10 pm to 3 am on Teen Nick. “My favorite part of Good Burger is Ed’s catch phrase that he always said” says Eno Abrefa, ECHS Grade 9. But what about a reunion with fellow co-star Kenan Thompson?

This reunion happened on The Tonight Show September 23 2015. In the reunion sketch Ed (Mitchell) takes the orders of various customers but keeps angering them to the point they don’t want their orders anymore. Customer, Lester Oaks (Thompson) comes in for a meal and asked for a Good Shake, but the shake he gets is just not good enough. However to end the sketch on a good note, both Mitchell and Thompson join each other to sing another well-known song, “He’s a dude she’s a dude we’re all just dudes.”

HOMECOMING DANCE REMINDERS!!

Dress Code:
1) No undergarments, midriff, unnecessary flesh or cleavage showing
2) No cut outs in the dress that show the stomach/chest/or lower back
3) Skirt or dress (or slit) must be at arm’s length
4) No jeans or shorts are permitted
5) Any student who does not comply with this dress code can and will be denied entrance.

Rules/Regulations:
1) There are no refunds for this tickets—all sales are final
2) All school rules apply & consequences will be carried out for failure to comply (defined in Student Success Guide)
3) Any student who does not comply with the Student Code of Conduct can and will be denied entrance or removed from the Early College High School event and parent/guardian will be contacted
4) Sexually suggestive dancing will not be tolerated. Individuals who do not conform will be removed from the dance, parents will be notified. Additional disciplinary consequences may also be imposed.
"Skywalkers" are gaining momentum by Nikesha Birch

Have you ever gotten tired of walking? Did you just wanted to stop walking and start gliding? The future of transportation is here—the new 2015 product called PhunkeeDuck—the next step in the evolution of transportation.

The PhunkeeDuck is going to revolutionize the way people travel for the better. Join the revolution and get gliding with the new trend. Riders can go up to 12 miles per hour. PhunkeeDuck is going to get you to where you need to be on time, every time. One charge will last for over ten miles. You can do all kids of spins, tricks and techniques.

Learning to ride a PhunkeeDuck is almost like learning to ride a snowboard. Once you get the hang of it, you will have hours of fun.

“They get scratched up fast, but they are fun,” said Myoi Malone, ECHS Grade 9. They are priced between $850 – $1,500, and they have a bunch of different names, like Skywalkers—based on the Star Wars franchise. They have a lot of different colors like black, blue, white, pink, orange, silver, white, red and yellow.

On Instagram you can find all the celebrities riding them with their friends and family, like Chris Brown, Tyga and his son and even Kendall Jenner. They’re very similar to the hover boards that came out a few years ago.

“They look fun but they are highly expensive and look unstable and difficult for kids under the age of 12 to ride. Just kidding. They look great and fun to have. When I get my first paycheck, I’m going to buy one,” joked Kemuel Harding, ECHS Grade 10.

Most kids see it as a toy but it’s really a new form of transportation.

4—the Buzz

Netflicks vs. Hulu: you decide by Kyra Maddox

A lot of people enjoy watching movies and TV shows in their free time. Among the online streaming options available today, Netflix and Hulu are two of the most popular, but the focus of their content library is quite different. Ever since Hulu Plus came out, questions have been brought up about which service is the best. Both services are $7.99 per month, and both have apps available on a wide variety of devices, including smart TV’s and video game consoles like the Xbox. Some advantages with Hulu Plus are having more TV shows and making them available quicker than Netflix does.

Chioma Blackson, ECHS Grade 10, says, “My experience with Netflix has been good, but I kind of want to try Hulu too because they have more current TV shows.” However, Netflix provides more movie and television series options overall.

Nakira Quail, ECHS Grade 10, says, “I prefer watching movies because when I watch shows I end up binge watching them.” The library size of Netflix is about 100,000 movies and TV shows, while Hulu’s is around 1,650 shows and 2,500 movies.

An advantage with Netflix is having better video quality than Hulu Plus does. The main disadvantage with Hulu Plus is having ads. One of the major reasons people sway towards Netflix are due to the annoying advertisements Hulu Plus provides. Hulu Plus is recommended more towards people who favor TV shows.

Episodes are available to stream typically within a day of airing. Netflix is more favorable for people who enjoy catching up on previous seasons of their favorite TV shows and popular movies.

However, Hulu Plus and Netflix are not for everyone. Mr. Young says, “I don’t like either. I am going to cancel my account.”

Even though there are many streaming sites that are available to people whenever they want, some people still prefer watching normal television.

The overall user rating of PhunkeeDuck is 3/5 stars and Netflix is 4.5 stars.

Use apps to order delivery by Kelsey Zeiter

Along with Starbuck’s, Domino’s now has a new offer where you can send a pizza emoji to Dominos and they will deliver pizza right to your door.

On Twitter if you tweet a pizza emoji to @dominos they will deliver pizza to you. But if you don’t have Twitter, you can send Dominos a text with a pizza emoji or “Easy Order” to DPIZZA (374992). Now when you send it, you might wonder how they will know what I want on my pizza. Well there are multiple steps you have to do before you can order your pizza on Twitter or through text.

You will have to set up a profile and then set up an “easy order” in your pizza profile. An easy order is where you have “those days when you’re sitting on the couch and you’re hungry and all you have to send an emoji. That’s so much easier.”

Elia Ahiamadje, ECHS Grade 9, said, “I like it, but it has a sense of laziness. It is also cool and easier and I like pizza.”

Elhan Salisbury, ECHS Grade 9, said when asked, “I’ve never heard about the new pizza delivery feature, but I think it is for pizza lovers and it can be misleading because, when only once it will make it easier instead of calling in the order.”

Amina Zerrad, ECHS Grade 9, said, “I think it is a good idea because it is efficient and fast, plus it appeals to younger people who have phones and who don’t like to call but can text.”

Hand sanitizers can be very dangerous for small children by Danielle Rogers

Unfortunately thousands of kids every year get alcohol poisoning due to…hand sanitizer. Yes, a friendly looking liquid with many assorted scents gives children a drunken feeling and could possibly cause death.

A six-year-old named Nujiah Russell, Atlanta, Ga., swallowed three or four squirts of hand sanitizer at school. “It tasted good,” she said, “like strawberry.” Well, what this little girl didn’t know is that this liquid has a lot of alcohol, and it had enough to send her to the hospital.

When she got there, she was actually drunk and was slurring her words and lost the ability of walking. Her mother, Ortonia Scott said, “That was very scary. It could have been very lethal for my child.”

Alcohol poisoning can cause confusion, vomiting and drowsiness. In severe cases, a child can stop breathing. It is said that 3,206 hand sanitizer cases related to young children were reported to poison control centers in 2010. In 2014, the number increased to 16,117 cases. Some children do it intentionally in order to get drunk, while others do it on a dare from friends. But the most say that they drink it because it looks tasty. A lot of the more “attractive” (hand sanitizers) are the ones that are scented. They have strawberry, grape, orange flavors. These types of hand sanitizers look more appealing to children.

I know it seems crazy to take in, but hand sanitizer is EXTREMELY toxic, with the liquid containing 45% to 95% of alcohol, which makes the liquid toxic to both children and beers contain about 5% to 12% of alcohol.

Nia Allen, ECHS Grade 9, says, “I think the teachers should monitor the children. Also, notify the parents that their children has consumed this chemical.”

Elhan Salisbury, ECHS Grade 9, says, “I think that hand sanitizer should be replaced by soap and water.” He also backed up his claim with, “because soap isn’t as harmful as sanitizer.”

It is recommended that parents and teachers should store hand sanitizer out of reach of children and to monitor its use. Non-alcoholic based products or sanitizing wipes can also be used.

STUFF THE BUS!!

Nov. 10

We will be filling Dr. Lainey’s car with non-perishable food items, household products, and personal care items to donate to the Food Bank of Delaware. ECHS can begin bringing items in on Monday! The Food Bank cannot accept hard candy, marshmallows, lollipops, soda in cans and bottles, chocolate bars or pieces, gum and soft candy such as marshmallows, caramels, taffy, licorice and gummy items.

Nurse’s Notes

Mrs. Kreiger wants to remind everyone that cold and flu season is coming. The best way to prevent getting sick is to wash your hands properly to avoid spreading the virus.

A tip on washing hands long enough is to sing the alphabet song while washing.

Netflicks vs. Hulu: you decide

Hand sanitizers can be very dangerous for small children

Use apps to order delivery

STUFF THE BUS!!

Nurse’s Notes

Use apps to order delivery

Hand sanitizers can be very dangerous for small children

STUFF THE BUS!!

Nurse’s Notes

Use apps to order delivery

Hand sanitizers can be very dangerous for small children

STUFF THE BUS!!

Nurse’s Notes

Use apps to order delivery

Hand sanitizers can be very dangerous for small children
Clubs are gaining momentum and increasing in popularity

by Joneesha Williams
There are 19 different activities that you can do at ECHS.

Cross country is when a team runs in a natural terrain this is a good sport if you like to run long distances and pace yourself. Mr. Young is the coach for cross country, and there are a handful of students on the team.

“It’s conditioning for other sports and helps keep you on feet,” said Kysair Murphy, ECHS Grade 9. “It’s a stress reliever after a long day at school.”

Publications does the morning power points called “The Daily Hornet.”

“We do the PowerPoint for students to see every morning. It’s fun and you learn new things,” said Eno Abrefa, ECHS Grade 9.

Chess is a fun game that uses strategy and skills to defeat and opponent,” said Eli Ahiamadji, ECHS Grade 9. Chess is a board game that uses a lot of strategy. It is played on a 64 square (8 by 8 grid) board and is played by millions of people all over the world. The most powerful piece is the queen, and the least powerful piece is the pawn. The objective is to ‘checkmate’ the opponent’s king by “placing it under an inescapable threat of capture. To this end, a player’s pieces are used to attack and capture the opponent’s pieces, while supporting their own.”

Is Hershey Park our only field trip?

by Shayla McCleary

Lots of students love to explore and go places, and while at school some interests are field trips. Students would rather go on school field trips then just staying in school, but sometimes but most students can’t go on many field trips because of the price. A field trip to a history museum with the ECHS students in English or Social Studies class would be helpful and informative.

Some teachers are trying to get more inexpensive field trips planned for the year other than the April field trip to Hershey Park. There are educational, but fun trips. This is just one of the many students who have food allergies. There is also the issue of allergies. There are many students who have food allergies. Brining in outside food could harm someone just by smelling or inhaling it.

She stated that she was the one who put this rule into place for the school. She was even asked if this rule also applies to her and the other teachers and she had said, “No, be cause we’re adults and we can handle our own nutrition.” The students are forced to follow these rules on having no fast food in school while the teachers don’t have to. But she was also asked if this rule would ever change, and she said, “Maybe, it depends on how good your argument is.” If the teachers are able to bring fast food to school and eat it, then should the students be able to do the same? Eno Abrefa, ECHS Grade 9, said, “I don’t agree with this because we don’t have a good lunch anyway.”

Joneesha Williams, ECHS Grade 9, said, “That’s a tricky situation because they’re teachers, adults, the boss of the situation and the students’ opinions wouldn’t matter because they already have their minds made up.”

Even Mrs. Savage didn’t think that the rule should be changed in favor of the students. “In school, just like in society, there are rules for younger folks that do not apply to adults. ECHS is no different.”

No fast food deliveries at ECHS

by Eli Ahiamadji

Why can’t we have fast food in this school? People have asked and many could not find the answers that they wanted.

“It disrupts the day of the students when the office has to get students out of class to get food. There is also the problem of nutrition,” Dr. Edney explained. “By law, students are required to eat a certain amount of nutrients that do not include trash like the kind found in fast food. There is also the issue of allergies. We have many students who have food allergies. Brining in outside food could harm someone just by smelling or inhaling it.”

It’s interesting to learn new things,” said Azhane Booker, ECHS Grade 9.

Have you ever heard of a game called Mancala? You put the captured counters in your mancala. After you make a capture, it’s the other person’s turn. The game ends when all six spaces (or your opponent’s side) are empty. This is just one of the games played in Board Games.

by Eno Abrefa

Teenagers in today’s society is described as stressed, anxious, and even frustrated. A survey from last year shows that, America’s youth are becoming more and more stressed than ever. What happened to the care free generation? Is it the tons of extracurricular activities such as sports, band, etc. On top of that if the teenager has chores they spend at least 1 hour on that. After all that they have at least 3 hours of homework to do every night. To add on to the stress range around junior year is when a teenager starts applying for college. “My bus ride is an hour and half long. When I come home I am too tired to do it. Sometimes I don’t even do it,” says Regine Suggs, ECHS Grade 9.

There are many ways to destress. By making a study schedule, you can have everything planned out. Another way to destress is by making time for yourself. When you make time to yourself you can relax. Always find some time to yourself no matter how jumbled up your schedule is.

Why she chose to teach at ECHS:
“‘I wish that I could coach teachers in project based learning.”

What she likes about ECHS:
“I like the opportunity to get college credits. I also like that the high school is connected to the campus proper and you feel a college connection.”

What would she like to change:
“I wish that I could coach teachers in project based learning.

School reflection: “Ms. Savage always pushes you to do your best.” - Joneesha Williams “Ms. Savage’s teaching style is Spirit Week kicks off the fun, excitement of Homecoming

by Nia Allen and Joneesha Williams

Are you ready for homecoming? Do you want to have some fun before the special day? It’s time for spirit week—time to get crazy and wacky. During the week of October 19—23, we will be having Spirit Week before Homecoming on Saturday, October 24.

 Danielle Rogers said, “I’m excited for spirit week and can’t wait for what we will be doing!”

 The staff of the school is currently planning what they will be doing during the week and what fun activities they will be able to do.

 “Nerd Day” was a hit on Monday, and many students participat- ed in Sports Day on Tuesday. Here is the full schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Day</th>
<th>Theme</th>
<th>Grade 9 Instructions</th>
<th>Grade 10 Instructions</th>
<th>Staff Instructions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10/19</td>
<td>Nerd day</td>
<td>wear red</td>
<td>wear blue</td>
<td>wear red and blue</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/20</td>
<td>Sports day</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/21</td>
<td>Mix Match day</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/22</td>
<td>Twin day</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/23</td>
<td>Red and Blue day</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

 Grade 9—wear red
 Grade 10—wear blue
 Staff—wear red and blue

 To decide the ECHS royalty, students vote for the court, then students vote again, but this time for king and queen. The winners will be kept a secret until the pep rally.

 Last year’s queen, Kyra Maddox, ECHS Grade 10, talked about what homecoming was like last year. “Homecoming was in Ms. Jordan’s room and the parents were in charge of the decorations. There was no theme last year so this year should be interesting,” she explained. “The court was five people. Everyone got a crown. They picked the queen by having roses: four red and 1 white rose. They were covered with foil, and the girl who picked the white rose won queen. The boys did it the same way but with checkers.”

 This year’s theme, Hollywood Nights, was chosen by the students.

 continued on page 2

Email your BEST Spirit Week photos, including selfies, to echsbuzz@gmail.com.
Great photos will be published in the Yearbook!